

Employer:
KEW Planning

Location:
Cardiff (with home working)

Salary:
Competitive

Closing date:
15 August 2022

Role:
Planner / Senior Planner

Qualifications:

A relevant degree (Geography / Sociology) or an accredited RTPI degree (in Town Planning) and / or a Masters, that is RTPI accredited. The successful person will have obtained MRTPI or be on the path to chartership, with at least 12 months relevant experience working in a town planning team in either public or private sectors.

Company Overview

“Our vision is to deliver success”

KEW Planning is dedicated professional town planning consultancy. Based in Cardiff, the company has a wider geographical coverage, which is predominantly South Wales, the South West, London and Essex.

The company always strives to deliver and be successful with projects. At KEW Planning, we enjoy challenging projects that require that extra level of expertise. We have a very personal approach, are always informative and communicative.

KEW Planning has experience of a wide variety of sectors, including but not limited to residential, commercial, hotel, education, leisure and heritage assets.

The company was shortlisted for Consultancy of the Year 2021 by the Wales Property Insider Awards. This company is a young, dynamic and knowledgeable business to work for, that works collaboratively with employees to enhance skills within the commercial real estate environment.

Essential Skills:

- The right person will have a proactive approach with their time management for a variety of projects and aspire to demonstrate high quality working practices to support the senior members of the team.
- Strong analytical and technical skills are required for the role, in support of our encouragement to respectfully challenge our clients.

- Excellent written communication and presentation skills are essential, with a commitment to continue to improve.
- Excellent project management, teamwork, and client service skills. A flexible and adaptable approach to your work. The right person will be positive and have a can-do attitude.
- Collaborative skills to liaise with ease with both colleagues and clients with the opportunity to manage your own projects, while assisting with the larger and more complicated projects the company has. It is important you are confident enough to pick this work up, with guidance.

The company are looking for someone that can hit the ground running, that wants to be in the office at least 3-4 days a week to facilitate learning and collaboration with the team. If more flexible working arrangements are needed, this can be discussed on application.

Desirable Skills:

- Welsh language speaker.
- UK driving licence.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary and performance related bonus.
- Good pension scheme.
- 23 days holiday per annum (including birthdays off). Potential for additional holiday days with long term service.
- Flexible working arrangements and remote home-work options.
- Location close to town centre and train station, with on-site cycle and car parking.
- Excellent training and development opportunities.
- Casual/relaxed working environment, with supportive working practices.
- A great team culture with team events throughout the year.